

Ode to Nature

Mother Earth is embracing all that lives and exists out of sole air water soil and fire

Any action is inspired of universal order independent of time and space

Thoughts are coming from this mind forming words of wisdom sounds out of these lips in any language

What else is there to do other than praise all creation trying to make the best out of this wonderful experiment

Nature contains all living and dead

15. April 2023